

In this monologue, Mary Magdalene — who in the past has suffered stigma about being “crazy” due to the demons Jesus drove out of her — finds Thomas and tries to convince him that she truly has seen Jesus alive.