

In this monologue, a shepherd outside of Bethlehem vents about God not stepping in when there's trouble ... but is interrupted by the arrival of angels! Both men and women tended sheep in ancient Israel, so this is not a gender-specific role.