

G C D
On ways well-worn, on roads unknown, I find I never am alone

Em G C D
When striding strong, when mired deep, or toiling on a pathway steep

C G Em C
I find Your hand is ever with me, and whether in the light or dark

Em D Em
I'm never, no never far from Your heart

When wandering lost, when in despair, when all is empty, dull and bare
No snowflake bright, no leaf of spring to cheer me in the journeying Still then Your hand is ever with me; Your care from me will never part and I'm never, no never far from Your heart

D Em D Em
My Savior knows, my Savior sees; my Savior listens for my voice

D Em D Em
He hears my cries, my desperate pleas; the very thought of me makes Him rejoice

D Em D Em
My Savior cares, my Savior's there; my Savior's always by my side

D Em D Em
For me He came, for me He stayed, for me He rose again, for me He died

And when one day my journey's done and I arrive at rise of sun and look at last upon the face of One who's loved me all my days then I shall know You as You've known me; no veil will hide Your holy scars
And I'll never, no never be far from Your heart
